BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Chapter 131 of the Private Acts of 2004, and any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by deleting Section 2 (1) and substituting instead the following:

(1) "Alderman" means a person elected to the board as provided in this charter. The term "Alderman" expressly excludes the position of Mayor.

SECTION 2. Chapter 131 of the Private Acts of 2004, and any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by deleting Section 6 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Section 6. The legislative powers of the city of Lexington shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Mayor and Aldermen, elected under the provisions of this act, over whose meetings the Mayor shall preside. Any form of board action shall be passed by a majority of the Aldermen present, if there is a quorum. A quorum shall consist of four (4) Aldermen.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall hold regular monthly meetings and hear and take action on ordinances, resolutions and other matters of City business.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen may appoint, promote, suspend, transfer and remove any officer or employee of the City; or the Board may, in the Board's discretion, authorize the Mayor or head of a department or officer responsible to the Board to take such actions regarding subordinates in such department or office. The Board shall appoint such heads of administrative offices or organizational units as the Board deems necessary. The Board may combine any such administrative offices herein or otherwise established.

Except as otherwise provided in this charter, the compensation of all officers and employees of the city shall be fixed by the Board within the

On the second Thursday in September beginning in 2005 and on each two (2) year anniversary thereof, a nonpartisan election shall be conducted by the Henderson County Election Commission at the same hours and places for holding general elections and under the general election laws of the state of Tennessee, at which time a Mayor and seven (7) Aldermen shall be elected.

The Mayor and Aldermen shall be elected by popular vote at large.

The candidate for Mayor receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected. If two (2) or more candidates for Mayor receive the same number of votes, more than any other candidate, the matter shall be referred to the people and another election for Mayor shall be opened and held in said City as soon thereafter as is practicable.

The seven (7) candidates for Alderman receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared to be elected. If two (2) or more candidates for Alderman receive the same number of votes, more than any other candidate, then the Mayor and Aldermen elected, between whom there is no tie, shall elect one of the two candidates by a majority vote at their first meeting. Any vacancies occurring either of the Mayor or the Aldermen, whether by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board. In the event the Mayor or Alderman should move from the municipality during their term of office, their position shall be presumed to have been vacated, and it shall be declared vacant and filled by the remaining members of the Board.
